

Mr. Sunil Kumar

PGDBM (XIMB, Bhubaneswar)

Area of Expertise

- Project execution
- Site Management
- Resource management and Optimization
- Equipment planning
- Project quality with specific expertise in Six Sigma
- Decision making in project
- Contract administration
- Commissioning
- Close out
- Delay analysis
- Site store management.

He enjoys teaching topics like work life balance in Construction Project, Lean Construction, Efficiency and Effectiveness of Construction organization, Project Complexity, Stochastic Technique in project. He has research interest is in area of effectiveness and efficiency driven performance measurement of organization and use of various operational tools in construction projects.

Prior to joining the academia in 2009, has worked for about 18 years in industry, both in the public sector (Vizag steel, BHEL), MNC (ALSTOM) and private sectors (Usha martin), in areas such as heavy maintenance, production management and project management. He has immensely contributed to power sector in India and Bhutan through his work in construction management, working for green field and brown field project. He has trained large number of professionals for various verticals in the business sector such as L&T Construction, Power, Hydrocarbon Engineering, Shipbuilding, Defense, Electrical & Automation, etc.

Apart from IPM, he is a visiting faculty at NITIE, Mumbai and Centre for Environmental Planning and Technology (CEPT), Ahmedabad. He had designed & delivered customized programmes for organization like Maruti Suzuki, National Dairy Development Board, Kalpataru, Steel Authority of India limited, National Academy of Defense Production etc.

He is a B.Tech. (Mech.) from G.B. Pant University, Pantnagar & holds P.G.D.B.M from X.I.M.B, Bhubaneswar. He is pursuing doctorate programme in management from XLRI school of management, Jamshedpur in area of operation management and decision science.

Qualifications

- B.Tech. (Mech.) from G.B. Pant University, Pantnagar
- PGDBM from XIMB, Bhubaneswar